1987 MOS Spring Meeting

The Oxford Bird Club and the Department of Biology, University of Mississippi, will co-sponsor the Spring Meeting, to be held in Oxford May 1-3, 1987. The Meeting will follow the usual format: Friday night there will be a get-together at the Ole Miss Student Union; Saturday there will be birding field trips in the morning and a banquet that evening at the Oxford Holiday Inn; and probably more field trips on Sunday morning. Marvin Davis and friends are currently working out the final arrangements, and Marvin will probably also be our banquet speaker.

Please mark your calendars for this event. Final details and reservation forms will be sent in the second number of this Newsletter volume in 3-4 weeks. However, if you wish to make hotel reservations now, Marvin suggests the following:

U.M. Alumni House Motel (234-2331)
University, MS 38677

Holiday Inn (234-3031)
